And Much More!

Our company was founded on the principal that planning an event should not turn into an event. In today's busy world of corporate meetings, deadlines and constant distractions we know the various challenges that one faces when planning an event.

This is where our team of Event Coordinators comes in to help assist you in planning your next event. With over 16 years of experience in the business of event planning our staff is trained to achieve excellence and strive for constant customer satisfaction.

We welcome you to have one of our consultants come in to your office and show you how TG Event Planning can help.
